SIR,

Subject:--

Re the changing of the due date for the submission of monthly Muzrai accounts of the Taluks, from the 20th to the 10th of the month succeeding.

I have the honor to state that the instructions issued to the Deputy Commissioners in G.O. No. 1946-56 dated 2nd June 1902 required them to instruct the Amildars and Deputy ^{Muzrai} Commissioners to send a copy of the Monthly Muzrai return to the Muzrai Secretariat and to the Deputy Commissioners before the 20th of every month, ^{in order} ~~in order~~ to facilitate the timely compilation of this office return before the end of a month, as many Taluks delay the submission of their returns till the very end of the month. Also many of the returns will have to be sent back for re-submission as there would be many discrepancies in the

2. To afford time for such correspondence as well as for the compilation of the provincial Muzrai statement in this office in time, it is necessary to change the due date fixed for the submission from 20th to the 10th.

3. As the returns are received late, it is not possible to embody the instructions given from this office, on account of the succeeding month or more, as it is likely that discrepancies arise between the figures of the month and the figures.

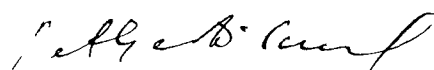

4. In the above circumstances,
